Re: Civil Misc. Exemption Application No. 1 of 2023

1. Certified copy of the order of the Tribunal has been annexed to the Income Tax Appeal No. 11 of 2023 (filed against the common order). Therefore, filing of certified copy is exempted.

2. Exemption application is allowed.

Order on Appeal

3. Heard Sri Gaurav Mahajan, learned counsel for the revenue.

4. While question of law has been pressed on the strength of certain decisions, upon query, learned counsel for the revenue fairly states, tax effect is below Rs. 1,00,000/-.

5. Clearly, the revenue involved in the present appeal is below the monetary limit of Rs.1 crore set by the CBDT vide its Circular No.17/2019 [F.No.279/Misc.142/2007-ITJ(PT.)], dated 8 August 2019. Also, the tax effect is too small to warrant any interference under Section 260-A of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

6. Accordingly, the present appeal is dismissed.
