05 EXPERT COMMENTS

AKHB EXPERT COMMENTS — editorial analysis, distinct from the Court's findings.

An existing order was continued, not restated — The Bar Association matter was listed for 1 October 2024 and the subsisting interim order continued until the next listing. The source therefore confirms an extension, but does not reproduce the earlier order's terms or identify its beneficiaries and scope.

Use the order chain to establish protection — Any description of the protected conduct or duration needs the underlying interim order and later listing orders. This one-page direction does not create a general injunction for all taxpayers or dispose of the writ. Its historical extension should not be represented as protection continuing today without the subsequent record.
