05 EXPERT COMMENTS

Liberty preserves a procedural route — The express permission is to file an appeal. It does not determine admissibility, condone delay, waive a deposit requirement or decide the merits of that appeal.

Withdrawal was sought by the taxpayer — The order records instructions to counsel and an unopposed request. It does not dismiss the writ after ruling against the taxpayer on the substantive tax issue.

No stay is supplied by this order — The source contains no express recovery restraint or period for filing the appeal. These protections cannot be inferred from the grant of liberty.
