UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

1. The present Special Leave Petition arises out of the impugned judgment and order dated 19.05.2026 passed by the High Court of Judicature for Rajasthan, Bench at Jaipur, in S.B. Criminal Miscellaneous Bail Application No.5304/2026.

2. This Court, vide order dated 03.07.2026, granted interim bail to the petitioner up to 14.07.2026 on the ground that he wants to attend the surgery of his father scheduled to take place on 07.07.2026. However, as the matter was not heard finally, the interim order dated 03.07.2026 was extended till the next date of hearing.

3. Mr. Maninder Singh, learned Senior Counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner, raised various grounds in the bail petition and placed reliance upon the judgments/orders in Ratnambar Kaushik Vs. Union of India, (2023) 2 SCC 621; Vineet Jain Vs. Union of India, 2025 SCC OnLine SC 2331; Ashutosh Garg Vs. Union of India, 2024 SCC OnLine SC 5804; Krishan Damani Vs. State of West Bengal, (SLP (Crl.) No.6954/2024); Abdulmajid Abdulsattar Memon Vs. State of Gujarat; and Sanjay Jain Vs. Union of India. This Court has carefully gone through the aforesaid judgments/orders.

4. Mr. Raghvendra P. Shankar, learned Additional Solicitor General, has vehemently argued before this Court that the petitioner is having two more cases and one of a similar nature and has caused huge loss to the State exchequer. He is a habitual offender. He has also stated that the petitioner is not entitled to grant of bail. He has further stated that the matter is fixed for framing of charges; however, there is no Special Judge posted at the relevant place, and therefore, the charges are not being framed.

5. This Court, keeping in view the criminal antecedents of the petitioner, is of the opinion that, at present, the petitioner is not entitled to grant of bail. So far as framing of charges is concerned, Hon'ble the Chief Justice of the Rajasthan High Court is requested to post a Special Judge as soon as possible so that the trial is expedited and framing of charges takes place. At this stage, this Court does not find any reason to allow the bail petition. The petitioner, who is on interim bail, is granted two weeks' time to surrender before the concerned Court.

6. The Special Leave Petition is dismissed.

7. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
