Hon'ble Surya Prakash Kesarwani, J.

Hon'ble Jayant Banerji, J.

Heard Shri Gaurav Mahajan, learned counsel for the appellant and Shri Suyash Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondent-assessee.

On 23.3.2022, this Court passed the following order:

"Shri Suyash Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondent has raised a preliminary objection as to the maintainability of the present departmental appeal on the ground that the tax levied is below the monetary limit fixed by the Board for filing of the appeal by the department.

Shri Gaurav Mahajan, learned counsel for the appellant prays for and is granted three days' time to obtain instructions.

Put up as a fresh case before the appropriate Bench on 29.3.2022."

Today, Shri Gaurav Mahajan, learned counsel for the appellant states, on instructions, that the quantum involved in the present appeal is below the monetary limit fixed by the CBDT for filing appeal by the Department and, therefore, it may be dismissed on that ground.

In view of the aforesaid, the appeal is dismissed on the ground of it being below the monetary limit fixed by the CBDT for filing of the appeal by the Department.

Order Date :- 12.4.2022
