[1] Whether reporters of the local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?

Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Revenue, Central Board Direct Taxes dated 10.12.2015 as under:

> "(1) It is to be specifically mentioned by the Income Tax Department while filing the appeal in the High Court that the tax effect exceeds Rs. 20,00,000/- except in the following matters:
>
> (a) Where the Constitutional validity of the provisions of an Act or Rule are under challenge, or
>
> (b) Where Board's order, Notification, Instruction or Circular has been held to be illegal or ultra vires, or
>
> (c) Where Revenue Audit objection in the case has been accepted by the Department, or
>
> (d) Where the additional relates to undisclosed foreign assets/bank accounts.
> 2. The pending appeals where the tax effect does not exceed Rs.20,00,000/- are directed to be withdrawn/not pressed."

2. It is not in dispute that the total tax factor is less than Rs. 20,00,000/- in this appeal and that it does not fall within anyone of the objections, as such, present appeal stands disposed of. Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
