Learned counsel for the petitioner, under instructions, states that appellant be allowed to withdraw the present appeal, reserving liberty to initiate appropriate proceedings, in accordance with law, including filing an application for review/rectification, if permissible. Permission granted. Liberty reserved.

2. Appellant undertakes to file such application within a period of four weeks from today and till decision thereupon is taken by the appropriate Authority, we direct that our interim order dated 29th January, 2016, shall continue to remain in force. Petitioner further undertakes to fully cooperate and not to take unnecessary adjournments. The Authority shall decide the application expeditiously and preferably within a period of three months thereafter. Needless to add, since petitioner had been pursuing remedies before this Court, limitation shall not come in the way of adjudication of such petition. Liberty reserved to approach the Court, if so required subsequently.

Appeal stands disposed of as withdrawn, so also, pending application(s), if any.
